

Basic Information

What is the official name of your religion and what other names is it known by?

What type of religion is it?

How old is your religion in comparison to the world? Is it considered an ancient or modern religion and how does its age compare to other religions?

How popular is your religion? In what regions or among which people does it thrive and why? Which regions or people denounce it and why?

Was your religion built upon an older belief system or has a newer religion been heavily influenced by it? If so, in what ways?

Basic Information

What are the core beliefs and doctrines of your religion?

1.
2.
3.
4.
5.
6.
7.
8.
9.
10.

How are the core beliefs or doctrines of your religion recorded and shared among worshippers? What are the benefits of this belief system and what are negative consequences of it?

--

What ethical practices does your religion promote?

1.
2.
3.
4.
5.
6.
7.
8.
9.
10.

How is your religion organized and governed?

--

Basic Information

How does your religion address contemporary issues such as gender, sexuality, science, and politics?

How is magic defined and perceived within the context of your religion? Is magic seen as a legitimate spiritual practice, a forbidden act, or something that exists outside the boundaries of the religion?

How does the religion adapt to or integrate advanced or futuristic technology into its practices and beliefs? What ethical or moral challenges do these technologies pose to the religion?

Notes on Basic Information